Sample Itinerary:

Day 1: Travel day to Washington D.C. Accommodations: Courtyard by Marriott—Downtown. This evening enjoy a Monuments & Memorials—“Evening Illumination Tour”.

Day 2: Our local guide joins us all day for a sightseeing tour. See the Monuments & Memorials by day. We will actually get up-close to memorial—WWII, FDR, Korean, Jefferson, Lincoln, and Vietnam. Additional Highlights: Holocaust Museum—This is a difficult ticket to obtain especially during the spring. Please note this is subject to availability. Arlington National Cemetery—Outdoor tram tour including a stop at John F Kennedy Gravesite. Dinner is included at a fine local restaurant overlooking the Potomac River.

Day 3: Visit George Washington’s Mount Vernon. A guided tour of the mansion is followed by time to explore the museums, Historic Area & Outbuildings. Lunch is included. Head to Williamsburg for our next (2) nights with lodging at 4-star Williamsburg Lodge. Located in the heart of the historic district, the hotel blends the elegance of a Virginia estate with modern amenities. Dinner is included at our hotel.

Day 4: A one-hour guided walking tour gets us acquainted with Colonial Williamsburg. After, spend the entire day exploring one of the country’s best-preserved colonial sites. Williamsburg was the scene of Patrick Henry’s Resolutions against the Stamp Act: the May 15, 1776 Resolution for Independence: George Mason’s Virginia Declaration of Rights: The Virginia Constitution which served as a model for the constitutions of many other states: and Thomas Jefferson’s bill for establishing religious freedom. In 1926, while a significant number of the famous landmarks still remained, steps were taken to restore and preserve the historic town. Now, after fifty years, Williamsburg is internationally known as a twentieth-century adventure in restoration and education. Centered on mile-long Duke of Gloucester Street, the city’s Historic Area encompasses 173 acres. Stately homes, public buildings, busy craft shops, and peaceful gardens and greens rekindle a sense of the American heritage for a million visitors annually. Dinner included at one of the famous taverns in Williamsburg including a “Nation Builder” first person portrayal of Thomas Jefferson.

Day 5: Visit and tour Monticello, home of Thomas Jefferson. Our visit features the Exhibits at the Visitor Center, the Highlights Tour of the Mansion, Jefferson’s Gravesite, and the Slavery Tour. Lunch is included at Michie Tavern, the historic 1784 landmark. Overnight in Staunton, VA.

Day 6: Enroute home tour the Beckley Coal Mine as we ride aboard trams through a vintage coal mine. The guides are veteran miners and provide past and present day firsthand accounts of miners.
