WOOD COUNTY COMMITTEE ON AGING
GOVERNING BOARD SERVICE AND EXPECTATIONS
(Estimated to be 3-5 hours of service per month on average)

- All elected members must be a Wood County resident.
- Support the WCCOA mission, strategic planning goals, and program activities. Set policy within the parameters of the Mission, the Constitution, and the Bylaws.
- Maintain fiduciary responsibility, including establishing a budget, assuring legal needs are met, and ensuring the stability and viability of the WCCOA.
- Attend monthly Governing Board meetings. Prepare for meetings by reading minutes, reports, etc. Participate in discussions and decision-making.
- Attend Organizational Meeting and Installation Ceremony.
- Attend Annual Meeting and Volunteer Recognition events.
- Serve on at least one standing committee. Volunteer for special or ad hoc committees as interests and time allow.
- Financially contribute and assist with fund-raising campaigns with the Friends of WCCOA's annual campaign (based on personal ability) to achieve 100 percent Board participation.
- Strive to attend events or activities sponsored by WCCOA.
- Offer expertise and connections to enhance agency decision-making and progress; avoid all personal or business conflicts of interest. Consult one-on-one with the Board President about specific agency issues.
- Serve as a representative of WCCOA to the public at large, encourage understanding of agency programs and challenges, encourage the participation of those 60 and older, help with fund-raising or other development contacts, help gauge public opinion, report positive and negative comments to Board leadership and/or Executive Director.
- Self-assess your performance as a Board member in relation to the above roles and responsibilities.

Note: Diversity refers to representations across all dimensions of human difference but not limited to geographic location, income, age, gender, sexuality, religion, race, ethnicity, etc. Inclusion is the culture in which a mix of people can work together and feel valued.
